Delivering the best solution

Residential

> Combining our strength for product design and space planning, Gresham can offer the right furniture and services to suit any requirements for residential furniture.

Whether selecting from our extensive range of standard products or specifying bespoke items, the result can be fine-tuned to meet the expectations of the end-user whilst considering the project budget and the constraints of the building in which it is installed.

Providing solutions

- > Gresham's residential furniture includes kitchen and dining products taken from our extensive cafe-bar and leisure portfolio. We recognise the importance of being able to offer design-led solutions that provide comfort and casual style whilst retaining a reputation for strength and durability. Whether used in large open plan dining areas or more enclosed domestic surroundings, these products are suitable for any application.
